

Satellite radio is the best thing to happen to the airwaves since FM. The information you want to hear is immediately available consistently regardless of location. I'm a former Marine combat vet who cares first about our constitutional right. I respectfully request the current breadth and content of programming available through services such as XM to not be affected by NAB's petition 04-160.